

MUST SEE ATTRACTIONS

Historic

STEVENS & SMITH HISTORIC SITE

Though currently under development, the home of Congressman & Abolitionist Thaddeus Stevens can be viewed at the corner of Vine and South Queen Streets for a glimpse of 20th century history.

Corner of E. Vine St. and S. Queen St.
lancastrhistory.org/places/stevens-smith
717-392-4633

FRANKLIN & MARSHALL COLLEGE

Founded in 1787 by Benjamin Franklin, Franklin & Marshall College is a leading liberal arts college that emphasizes interdisciplinary learning. Visit to see the historic college and beautiful campus.

637 College Ave.
fandm.edu | 717-358-3911

PRESIDENT JAMES BUCHANAN'S WHEATLAND & LANCASTERHISTORY CAMPUS

Former home to President James Buchanan, Wheatland offers guided tours, access to an expansive Research Library, and entry to the Louise Arnold Tanger Arboretum.

230 N. President Ave.
lancastrhistory.org | 717-392-4633

HISTORIC ST. MARY'S CHURCH

Doubling as a historic site and place of worship, St. Mary's was established in 1741 and is the fourth oldest Catholic Church from the original thirteen colonies.

119 S. Prince St.
stmaryslancaster.org | 717-392-2578

ROCK FORD PLANTATION

Once home to Revolutionary War General Edward Hand, this 18th Century, Georgian-style mansion displays period furniture and decorative arts, is open for guided, historic tours, and hosts educational programs.

881 Rockford Rd.
rockfordplantation.org | 717-392-7223

Shopping

THE LANCASTER CENTRAL MARKET

Open since 1730, Central Market is the oldest continuously running farmers' market in the United States, houses over 60 vendors, and is a hub for community engagement and local connection.

23 N. Market St.
centralmarketlancaster.com | 717-735-6890

300 BLOCK OF N. QUEEN STREET

Block of eclectic and independently owned shops offering a range of goods such as antiques, jewelry, clothing, art, food, and more!

300 Block of N. Queen Street
the300blockshops.com

GALLERY ROW & LANCASTER CITY GALLERIES

Stretch of art galleries showing the best of Lancaster's regional artists, mediums, and rotating exhibitions. Hours usually extended during First Fridays.

100 Block of N. Prince St.
lancastercityartgalleries.com

Entertainment

LANCASTER BARNSTORMERS

Home to Lancaster's own professional baseball team, Clipper Stadium offers exciting and affordable entertainment with its state-of-the-art facility, large Kids' Play Area, and exceptional concession stands.

650 N. Prince St.
lancasterbarnstormers.com | 717-509-4487

FULTON THEATRE

Historic theater producing a variety of performances from classic musical productions to experimental studio plays. Also offers classes, workshops, and community engagement programs.

12 N. Prince St.
thefulton.org | 717-394-7133

Parks

MUSSER PARK

Focal point and public space that includes a large grass area, playground, and close proximity to the Lancaster Museum of Art.

135 N. Lime St.
musserpark.org

BUCHANAN PARK

Includes a large grass area, basketball courts, playground, pavilion, and free access to Beau's Dream Dog Park.

901 Buchanan Ave.